SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Simon, do you wish to be recognized.

SENATOR SIMON: Mr. President, I rise for a point of personal privilege. There is a gentleman at the back of the room with a big grin on his face. It is Senator Newell in case you don't recognize it. Senator Newell with a little bit of cooperation from his wife Arlene today gave birth to a eight pound, eleven ounce baby girl by the name of Sarah. Certainly we all offer our congratulations to Papa Newell.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Are we ready for Select File? Senator Nichol, do you wish to take up 398A?

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. President, members of the Legislature. Yes I did. We put this bill in not knowing whether we would need it or not and my only stance is that if we need it, it's here. If we don't need it I guess we can drop it here. So, some members have said we need it and some say we don't need it. If you will recall as we visited about the judges salary a few days
